

Parkinson Alberta Board of Directors Biography

Doug Critchley, Calgary

Doug likes to consider himself a western Canadian having landed in Calgary in 1999 after 10 year stops in Edmonton, Winnipeg, & Regina. Doug is a partner in the ZAG family of Home Services a network of business that provides Flooring, Painting, Wall & Window coverings to Home owners.

Parkinson is dear to him with his father being diagnosed at an early age. He believes in giving back to the communities where he works and lives. Some of Doug's past and current involvement with other organization's include CRRRA, Board of Director of The Entrepreneurs' Organization & Chair of the communications committee, Chaired and sat on several Calgary Chamber of Commerce committees; Membership Committee Small Business Week Business After Hours, Board Member Edmonton Chamber of Commerce, chaired and served on several committees; Small business Week, Trade Show, Golf Tournament

Doug takes pride in building teams that are dedicated to demonstrating exceptional customer service experiences.