

Parkinson Alberta Board of Directors Biography

Janice Calihoo, Edmonton

Janice Calihoo is married to George and together they have two wonderful daughters and now two great son-in-laws. They have 6 grandchildren. George and Janice have had the opportunity to live in many great towns and cities. From Hinton, Vancouver, Nanaimo, and Edmonton. They have enjoyed meeting so many great people who are still friends. They wanted to be involved in the communities and help and give back.

George is at present still working for Celanese as an engineer. Janice is retired as of two years after over 30 years in banking. From credit unions to banks, then as a mortgage broker for the last 10 years which was so rewarding to be able to help those buying homes, whether it was their first or last.

Janice has served on town council, boards such as chamber of commerce, policing, arts and culture, condo boards as well as serving on a local group to organize a Canada Day festival for five years. Janice and George enjoy golfing, biking, and vacations to their favorite place in Mexico.
